SPECIAL TOWN MEETING AT WOODSTOCK TURNS DOWN PROPOSED LAND PURCHASE

A proposal to purchase a three acre parcel of land on Lake Christopher for use as a town beach and park was defeated at a special Woodstock town meeting Tuesday night by a vote of 36 to 25.

The Woodstock Conservation Commission had requested that the town appropriate $7,000 to purchase the land owned by Ted Olson, with the remaining $6,000 expense to be funded from federal sources.

Reasons given for purchase of the 3.5 acre parcel were safety of children, public access to the lake for swimming, future investment, and more room for people to enjoy the lake front.

Reasons against the park were that the total cost was too high, possible vandalism with minimal police protection, the greater need to spend money for a new elementary school, and increased use by non-residents.

Marcel Polak, a member of the Woodstock Conservation Commission, explained that state requirements mean that the park would have to be open to all people and discriminate against no one. He said the town road bordering the property would be moved further away from the beach front.

Richard Duplessis, another member of the commission, estimated the cost of moving the road at $28,000. He said most of the other ideas would come from donated labor and materials.

FROM THE bethel town office

The Board of Selectmen met in regular session Monday evening, June 20, in the Town Office Meeting Room to act on a variety of items, clearing the way for the summer meeting schedule.

Community Safety and Law Enforcement Chairperson Barbara D. Brown reported the status of a police policy being drafted by the committee. Several basic concepts have been defined.

Unlike other organizations, the police service provides for the greatest amount of discretion by all police officers and constables regardless of their length of service.

The police role is influenced as much by the discretionary powers it holds as by the ability to use force.

Through the development of policy, the police can define its role in the community and control its practices in light of community expectations. (Guidelines can then be set for police operations and practices that will make them responsive to community priorities.)

Police policy will indicate to the community where the police agency stands on major issues and also permits some limits to be placed on discretionary police powers.

Faced with resource shortfalls, police policy will permit the department to establish priorities to be placed on discretionary police powers.

Sunday River

Joanline Fleet, Corres.

Mrs. Mary Morin, Mrs. Jeanne Fleet, Mrs. Nancy Kimball and Ben Swan attended Mildred Merrill's funeral Saturday afternoon.

Miss Penny Fleet is working at D. W. McKee's part time.

Miss Tammy Fleet left for the coast for her summer job.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fleet and Eva Yates called on Julia Fleet at Ledgeview nursing home, Sunday. She was sleeping when we first got there and then woke up to visit with us.

Mrs. Mary Morin spent Sunday with Mrs. Rita Laurinatis and family in Mexico.

Sent in by Viva Whitman:

What a week for thunder showers! Doesn't seem as though we need any more for some time, after all we've gotten this past week.

On my way home last Monday, with my daughter, husband and baby, we stopped to see an old neighbor of ours in Norway. Everett lived next to my family, on the Waterford road, for a number of years. It was so nice to see her again and she wanted to see the new baby. Also stopped to see Lulu Swan for a few minutes, to show off the new family member. I hadn't seen her for quite a while either, so was glad of the chance to stop.

We got to Bethel a little while before lunch and Michael and Nonie stayed to visit for a while, also Nonie wanted her aunt Peggy to give her a haircut. When Peggy got home from work, that was accomplished and while in the business, she cut my hair, too. Helps to have someone in the family able to do such things.

In the evening, Peggy, Russell and I rode down on to the Gore Road at Locke Mills to pick up some corn Robert Day had brought home for Russell. Russell feeds the crows so they won't pull the corn that has been planted. However, as soon as the corn is large enough, the crows will have to find their own feed.

Tuesday forenoon, I went to town to get a few things I needed. After lunch, Steve Blake and helper came and painted our ceilings, so we really shine now. Wish I could do the job as quick as they did, but know enough not to try. Guess I'm getting older or something.

In the evening, Daria Becker and Pamela Taylor, from West Bethel, called for a while to see Peggy. Daria was an exchange student from Germany and made many friends while attending Telstar. She is enjoying seeing as many of those friends as she can while here for a visit in this country.

What showers we had on Wednesday! They made those on Tuesday seem very mild. We began to wonder if the showers would ever end. Cricket, the dog, doesn't like thundershower either and stays as close to us as she can get.

Damita Yates and daughter Eva called for a short visit on Thursday. She and I are planning a trip to Lewiston in the near future, so she stopped to discuss it with me.

This was Peggy's first day out of the diner, so after lunch, she and I went to Rumford where I had a little business to tend to, also did errands for Russell and went shopping. Made the most of the trip by getting everything done that we could.

Was up early Friday morning to take my car to Sonny's for some doctoring. Had to have the exhaust system fixed as well as a part on my wheel that had been groaning for some time. Garage calls are like doctor's calls, they take a lot of money you can't afford.

Had to take a trip to Fryeburg on Friday too, and then in the evening, Peggy, Russell and myself

Magalloway &amp; Wilson's Mills

Alice Harvey, Corres.

The Ladies met at the hall on Tuesday. They discussed the program for the next Grange meeting.

The school children enjoyed their annual picnic at Littlehale's campground on Tuesday evening.

Louis and Myrtle Cole and Ruth Noyes of New York spent the week end in Magalloway.

Pam Hinkley of Biddeford was at her parents' home over the week end.

Larry and Anne Bragg and family and Elizabeth Glover were at the Girardins in Green on Saturday.

Ira McGinley an Eastern Star

meeting in Littleton one night last week.

A flea market was held at Wilson's Mills Hall on Saturday.

Donny and Donna Glover took their son, Robert, to Boys State in Augusta on Sunday, where he will spend the week.

I went to East Andover to visit our sister, Laura Hutchins and husband, Bernard. Her daughter Lorene and girls from Bryant Pond were there so got to see how Lorene's baby has grown. Hadn't seen them for quite some time so there was a great change in the baby. She certainly has grown well.

Did odd jobs around home Saturday, but in the evening, Peggy, Russell and I all went to the Woodstock Alumni Banquet at Telstar cafeteria. It was great to see all the folks who turned out to make a total of 101 people present. There were many classes not represented at all, it seem too bad. We always have a good time seeing folks we haven't seen for years. Sometimes you have to ask who they are, but it certainly is worth the effort to go and meet old school friends. Hope more come next year. They try to have it the first Saturday in June unless something interferes as it did this year. However, if you watch the papers, you will see the date for the event to take place.

Sunday afternoon, Peggy and I went to West Bethel Church to attend a bridal shower for our niece, Jody Haines. There were many ladies there and we all had a good time. Jody got lots of nice presents, all very useable for a young couple starting life together.

We would like to let everyone know that Bear River Grange now has packages of notes and envelopes to sell. Peggy and I have folded and packaged them ready for sale to anyone interested. They have pictures of interest on them, making good gifts, or good for your own use. Each package contains 12 notes and 12 envelopes—each package containing the following: Bear River Covered Bridge, Screwauger Falls, Newry Union Church, and Bear River Grange Hall, where it used to sit. These pen and ink sketches are by Sue Wight of Newry and are very good. Anyone wishing to see these and buy, can call Russell Yates or Linona Blake. We hope to get them around where people can see them.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all you kind people who have asked why I haven't been writing for a few weeks. As you probably know by now, I went to help my daughter before and after the baby was born, and just got home a week ago. She needed help and I enjoyed holding that new granddaughter and rocking her. However, I'm back at it again and it's nice to know there are folks that like to read my crazy writing. Wish I could do better, but thanks for letting me know you like to read it anyway. It means a lot to me, as I don't consider myself a writer. Would like to be a better one.

A short business meeting was held. A panel of three, Ken Ramage, Rita Davis and Dorothy Moore, was chosen to establish a formal set of regulations. Anyone having suggestions should contact these people or write them down and send to one member for discussion.

Sympathy is extended to Elsie Fuller and her brother, Frank Spinney, because of the death of their sister, Mildred Merrill.

Clayton Thompson wishes to thank all donors who gave in memory of his father Arthur Thompson. I have received a list of exactly what was done with the money, what shrouds and plants were purchased but do not locate it this morning. At least my pocketbook will be much lighter to carry for a few days as I completely emptied it and put back about half of the contents.

The Bergerons were in Farmington over the week end as Mike's sister, Marilyn, from California, is visiting her mother. The Bergerons gathered for a birthday party for Marilyn Sunday afternoon.

ROUND ROBIN BRIDGE CLUB

Since the fall of 1979, the Bethel Round Robin Club has been having bridge tournaments several times during each year. An 11 week, 24 player, session has just ended with a dinner bridge at the Sudbury Inn. During these four years, records have been made and broken. The all time high single round was held for a long time by Dutch Dresser at 6630 and now is held by Anne Moran at 6690. Other scores for this session are: first, Norma Jodrey; second, Barbara James; third, Barbara Douglass; fourth, Sally Ramage; fifth, Cynthia Mason; and sixth, Rita Davis. The "Glad You Came" went to Margaret Trinward; the single low round, Norma Jodrey; and the single high round, Anne Moran.

A short business meeting was held. A panel of three, Ken Ramage, Rita Davis and Dorothy Moore, was chosen to establish a formal set of regulations. Anyone having suggestions should contact these people or write them down and send to one member for discussion.

Greenwood City

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres.

Did you ever wake early, before dawn, that period before the birds begin their songs? I have. It's a time of quiet but I listen just the same, strain with all my senses—I know not why—maybe trying to catch some meaning to those moments before the lifting of the dark—the change to dawn.

As I wait and listen there soon come the calling of the white throats and the violin music of the thrushes. They blend with other singers and there's a sense of oneness. This all comes when there is silence. How true the statement, "Tranquility is beyond price." I presume there are those who would say, "Silence belongs to the wilderness. One doesn't have to be alone to enjoy it. It's a mark of understanding and of friendship. I have experienced it many times and often wish I could share it again for it makes walking richer and more complete.

The terrible showers of the week left little time for walks but I did go to the ledges and I took a short ride in my boat. Even that was interrupted by thunder so that I came back to shore. In each place there stood the pines. At a distance a pine's branches seem to be tier upon tier, a stately queen of dignity and grace. The early history of our America is associated with this tree; a vital force in the Revolution, a source of industry, the finest specimens for the Royal Navy, an emblem on the Revolutionary flag, and once on a coin. The white pine is a favorite of mine.

I stopped on the ledges for a short time. I watched the gentle waves on the pond. The birds were active, a group of swallows, diving and soaring were above the water. Somewhere I heard the crows calling.

I watched the cloud-shadows, streak the ledges and the grass. This day I think the clouds were on parade. There were many different shapes and many were flat on the bottom as if planned. In the far distance black clouds appeared. I expected lightning would rip the sky and the thunder roll. So it was time to start home, just a short distance away. I had no desire to experience any kind of shower in this spot. So this short trip holds its shining moments that will persist in memory and hold a warm place in my heart.

We have been to Stephens Memorial Hospital a couple of times to visit with our brother-in-law, Carroll Nottage, who is recovering from a heart attack.

We were surprised with a visit

WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOC.

UNDERGOES CHANGES

Response to Woodstock Historical Society's Exhibits in the School Amex has remained consistent this summer in the month of June thanks to the presence of Treasurer and Trustee Annie Crockett and the new Society sign which is more highly visible than heretofore. Curator Larry Billings has been active making exhibits more mobile so they can be transferred to the new museum across town. Members are invited to come to the building on July 9 to determine what structural alterations they would suggest. There will be a box lunch supper. The gentlemen will bid on the ladies' preparations. A table has been taken in July for selling flea market items and Society products. A supper will take place in late July. Recent acquisitions have come from Ruby Emery and Robert and Mary Billings. Several generous donations have come in recently and it is hoped that members will support the Society financially. The burden of purchasing and removing a building can be considerably lightened if residents and visitors are mindful of the Society's needs. Several anniversaries are approaching—Mary and Robert Billings and Hazel and Victor Brooks should be remembered at this time. Watch for the Historical Society sign at different events as the Society could pop up almost anywhere.

South Woodstock

— Olive Davis, Corres. —

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews and Lillian Harmon took dinner with Olive Davis Saturday. It was a beautiful day to be out and truly a treat for sister Lillian as she is a shut-in. Her wheel chair is her home. She hopes to go to Ernest Harmon's before long for a while.

Olive Davis has put in a week of illness with this virus that is going the rounds. Kay Schroer and baby Heidi have been ill ever since the Schroers moved. The two boys Billy and Johnny were taken first. I hope they are all on the mend now.

Callers at my house were Martha Clements and Mrs. Mitzel Anderson, who is visiting the Clements. Esther Davis and Pastor Thomas Schroer dropped in to see if I was better Saturday before going home from the services at the Adventist Church.

Esther Davis and I were in Bethel Friday on business. Then I took dinner with her on returning home.

In honor of his graduation from Telstar Regional High School, friends and relatives of Eric Clements gathered at the Clements home for a supper on Friday, June 10. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Thompson and Mrs. Shirley McLeod of Belfast, Christopher Stone of Searsport, Miss Judith Brazier of Sullivan, Len-wood Andrews, Dana Chandler, Mrs. Esther Davis, Miss Lisa Thurlow, Woodstock, Mrs. Mitzel Anderson, Miss Ingrid Andersson of Hagfors, Sweden and Eric's parents and two brothers, David and Bruce. Following the dinner, several of the guests attended graduation exercises. Eric plans to attend the University of Maine at Fort Kent in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols Clements were at the Portland Jet Port recently to welcome back a former exchange student, Ingrid Andersson, of Sweden. Ingrid and her mother, Mitzel Andersson, will be spending three weeks with the Clements family and then will go on to New York for a short visit before returning home to Sweden.

Tuesday evening Kay Schroer and three children called as they were returning from camp meeting. They were all better except for Johnny who has had infection in his ears. He looked rather thin.

Esther Davis attended the fire party held at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grooks on Curtis Hill. There were 13 guests present. Mrs. Lettie Brooks was the hostess.

I called on Ruby Emery on the Gore Tuesday. She is looking fine. Her little black dog was my pal while I was there. He laid under my feet by the chair all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tuoci are at their cottage for the summer. The hot weather brought on thunder showers the last few days in this area.

North Paris

— Eveline B. Vatcher, Corres. —

The weather for the past week has been beautiful and hot, hot, hot. The thunder storms, hail, and winds did much damage but the air didn't cool off very much. When we went to "Big Rock" to feed our steer we enjoyed all the merry little breezes and looked at the flowers in bloom. It's lovely up there.

Mrs. Alexander Ross of Locke Mills gave a framed picture 61" by 29" to the North Paris Community Club in memory of her late husband, who was born here in North Paris. It is a late autumn scene and it is lovely. The club secretary will send her an appropriate card when we have our next meeting. Mrs. Ross has recently moved to the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Twitchell. Joe and Eveline Vatcher brought the picture down and it is all hung up in the hall. Joe has cleaned the hall inside and the windows outside all by himself, even if it was hot. The chairs he went to Saugus for are black metal folding chairs and several card tables. We are very grateful for the donations. The fried clam supper at West

Paris Friday had a good attendance. It benefitted the Tri Town Rescue Squad.

Doris Lawrence has been confined to the house with a bad cold for a week. Their callers: Lloyd Humbley, Arnold Coffin, Susan Lyons, Joe and Eveline Vatcher, Albert Kimball.

Susan Lyons spent the week end with her parents in Bedford, Mass., and David Lyons visited his father and grandmother at Freeport and Damariscotta.

Joe Vatcher bought a new mower so she could keep the lawn trimmed while he went fishing but he neglected to buy an umbrella for it so Eveline isn't interested.

Harlan Abbott joined the Earl Newton family at Mechanic Falls Sunday afternoon for a cook out.

A walk in our garden this lovely Monday morning shows us that someone had a party in the peapatch and also sampled the tops of the bean plants. Blessed be nothing.

The summer has really got here all at once, and marks the influx of tourists into the state by the numbers, traveling miles upon miles to enjoy the scenic beauty of our Great State, that we, as year long residents, take for granted every day. To all of our summer visitors, welcome, and we hope you will enjoy our rugged coastline, our quaint New England villages, and coastal towns, our stately majestic mountains, and our winding rivers, and cool pine shaded lakes of the region. It brings to mind that when traveling through the State, one of the greatest signposts, most photographed and famous, are the towns which you travel through that are named for other countries, such as Norway, Paris, Denmark, Sweden and China. One becomes aware of the customs and behavior of our people, native only to this area, and discovers that beneath the "ayrutes" and "how be yas"—there lies and beats a kind and generous heart, and willing and able hands to please you, and make all of you most comfortable, as you enjoy traveling through our State. Maine was allotted out in "grants" from Massachusetts in its early beginnings, and the folks that settled this untamed area, were for the most part, direct descendants of those arriving in Massachusetts in the early 1600's. Traveling eastward in the State—we come to the town of Hermon. Hermon was derived from Biblical origin also. Hermon was a high mountain on the Syrian border. It was topped with snow all year round—and the run off of its water when the ice and snow melted, formed the headwaters of the Jordan River. It is thought this was the mountain where Jesus' disciples found and saw him, shining in all His Glory.

Then we also have Carmel in the eastern part of the state. In Biblical times, Carmel was a range of hills which jutted into the Mediterranean Sea, and was where Elijah the prophet seemed to have made his fortress.

HOWE - KIMBALL

Mr. &amp; Mrs. Thomas Scott Howe

On Easter Sunday, April 3, 1983 wedding vows were exchanged between Thomas Scott Howe and Suzanne Penny Kimball. The groom is the son of Clarence and Joan Howe and the bride is the daughter of Rodney and Jeannette Kimball.

The 2 p. m. wedding ceremony took place at the West Bethel Union Church and was conducted by Rev. Norman Rust. An introductory song was sung by the groom's uncle, Roy Lurvey. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and the gown worn by the bride had a high neck collar with a lace front, long sleeves, satin front with white applique roses and a ruffle edge. The bride also wore a lace veil attached to a cap with white roses. The bridal bouquet consisted of silk white carnations and silk red roses.

The groom wore a light blue tuxedo and serving as best man was his brother, Robert Howe. Ushers for the event were John Kimball, brother of the bride and Peter Blake, friend of the groom. The men all wore tuxedos of light blue coats and dark pants.

Serving as matron of honor was Linda Howe, sister-in-law of the groom and bridesmaids were Kelly Doonen and Carrie Hayden, friends of the bride. The bride's attendants wore satin gowns with long sleeved flower jackets and wide brim hats. Spring colors of blue, yellow and green were worn and matching silk flowers were carried in white baskets. During the double-ring ceremony Thea Dunn sang "Songbird" and Nesta Littlefield was the organist.

After the church ceremony a reception was held at the West Bethel Grange Hall. The West Bethel Union Church Ladies Aid served the meal and the traditional wedding cake was made by Betty Lurvey, aunt of the groom. The bride's two sisters, Sandy and Tracy Kimball circulated the guest book and attended to the gift table.

Tom and Suzanne chose the Bahamas as their honeymoon destination and have returned home. Tom is employed by Boise Cascade, Rumford, and Suzanne is the receptionist for Dr. John Trivard, Bethel.

THIS WEEK AT THE MOSES MASON HOUSE

New members this week are Bill and Terry Judson of Bethel and Barry Kelly of Berlin, N. H. New life members are Paul and Helen Varner Judkins of Dixfield.

Nearly 100 Kimballs from Maine gathered on Saturday at the Moses Mason House for the Maine Kimball Family Reunion. Also attending was Walter Fales of Royal Oak, Mich., an engineer with Chrysler Corporation, who is the National President of the Kimball Family Association of America and whose mother, Alice Kimball Fales was born in Middle Intervale.

The Moses Mason Museum will open on Friday, July 1, for its 10th season. Opened in 1974, the museum has steadily increased the nature and quality of its collections and the number of visitors has also increased from a few hundred in the beginning to several thousand last year. Since the beginning the museum has depended upon volunteers to serve as guides and many people in the Bethel community have generously offered their time and talents for this often very satisfying experience of meeting new people and giving them some impression of Bethel and its past. Many of the guides who served first in 1974 are planning to assist with this year's program but new guides are always welcome. An orientation for new guides will be held at the Moses Mason House on June 30 at 2 p. m. Anyone wishing to participate should let the Society know by calling 824-2908 or the head of the Museum Committee, Mrs. Judy Haskell at 824-2724.

FISHING - HUNTING LICENSE FEE UP - DATE

A proposal to adjust license fees which would have increased revenues for the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife by approximately $2.5 million annually, will be held over till the next legislative special session. Disagreement among Fisheries and Wildlife committee members and also between the department led to plans for an informal study conducted during the summer. The committee will examine where in the department money can be saved, and what constitutes a full complement of wardens for the state.

The Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife is a dedicated revenue department which includes Stained Glass by Bob and Jane Grover, Canadian History by Stan Howe and Life in Rural New England in the Late Nineteenth Century by campus coordinator, Peggy Wight. Additional courses planned for fall and winter and Woodland Plant Life by Sherry Rhodes, Astronomy by Tim Kersey and Cross Country Skiing: The Florida Alternative by Steve Wight.

ACCEPTS ENGAGEMENT AT INN

Stan West, vocalist/guitarist, has accepted an extended engagement at the Bethel Inn and will be entertaining this summer in the Mill Brook Tavern. Stan, who is in Moose, Pa., is a Middle-of-the-Road, one-time band. His music is geared to accommodate the folks who remember the hits and standards of the 50's and 60's.

Stan plays bass pedals with his feet and with his automatic rhythm machine, the beat is always there. He also plays the harmonica and has been known to kick out a melody on a kazoo, if need be.

Stan's repertoire of songs is too numerous to mention. From A to Z, from Cole Porter to Rodgers & Hart, Stan West sings them all.

Having lived in Europe for 22 years, he returned to the USA in 1979. While in Europe, in addition to singing and playing, he appeared in several war films released in America, including "The Longest Day" and "The Longest Day". Thus, as you can see, his career is quite varied.

Stan will be performing in the Mill Brook Tavern five nights a week - Tuesday through Saturday from 9 o'clock until closing. Make it a point to join him. "Downstairs at the Bethel Inn."

largely dependent on license fees to fund fish and wildlife law enforcement, management and research programs.

In addition, a subcommittee of the Audit and Program Review Committee has recently begun an in-depth study of the Department of Conservation and the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. This study will continue through the summer and into the fall, examining both departments, division by division, as they look at what the Legislature has mandated through law and how that compares with the budget. They will identify what issues need to be delved into more thoroughly, and hopefully will be drafting bills to be submitted in the second session of the 111th Legislature. The special Audit Committee will be updating fisheries and wildlife with new information as it becomes available.

BETHEL TOWN OFFICE

the various aspects of their function.

Having defined these concepts, the Law Enforcement Committee has begun writing a police policy that will be presented to the Selectmen this summer in response to the Boards' earlier request for an advisory document on this subject.

The Manager reviewed the 1983 preliminary sewer department budget with the Selectmen. This budget continues in the same hard-nosed manner as last year's when operating costs were cut $3000, enhanced by the fact that sewer expenses in 1982 were kept $4,465.49 below budget projections.

For 1983 operating costs of $75,160 are projected which is $400 less than 1982, significant savings, considering the effects of inflation on other costs, during the past 12 months. It appears that no rate increase will be necessary this year. The Selectmen will act on the sewer budget at their July 18 meeting after final review of revenue projections in early July. Posting of the quarter's sewer bills will be delayed pending budget approval and will be mailed about July 20.

The Manager reviewed proposed street light changes to reduce the Town's street lighting costs about $110 a month. Approximately 16 lights will have to be removed to realize the potential annual savings. A second list was reviewed that addresses areas where a few efficient economical high pressure sodium fixtures could take the place of several old fashioned incandescent fixtures. A public hearing on the proposed change will be held at the July 18 meeting and a list of proposed changes will be published in the Bethel Citizen.

Other items included discussion of the proposed fiscal year change, review of the Board's response to a request to approve a citizen's request to operate a gravel pit on Route 232 property and approval of an improved employee major medical benefits coverage.

The Board will meet in special session at 5 p. m. Thursday, June 30, in the Town Office Meeting Room to hold a public hearing on the Norseman Inn liquor license renewal and a victuallers license for the Bulldog Diner.

'SUPERINTENDENT'S NEWSLETTER

Dr. Wayne F. Gersen

The teachers in S.A.D. 44 do more than prepare lessons, students, and grade papers. During the past year, over 60% of the teachers in S.A.D. 44 served untaritably on various district committees, and worked voluntarily on various student activities. Because of these teachers' volunteer efforts, the curriculum S.A.D. 44 is constantly improving and students in the district are able to participate in extracurricular activities that would otherwise be unavailable.

Listed below are the teachers who have been cited by district administrators for their participation in volunteer activities: Ka Bean, Pamela Berry, Del Brown, Peter Brown, Loraine C. Linda Davis, Amy Davis, Na Davis, Gerry Dungen, John Erme, Nancy Fox, Linda Gilbert, M. Gilbert, David Gronda, Carol Gould, Ellen Haverman, Wa Howe, Kathleen McCluskey, Barbara Ferguson, Vickie Meisner, Bev Melville, Shirley Merrill, Ray Merrill, Ray Micron, Sue Mitchell, Mary Newcomb, J. Parker, Barbara Sabin, Roger bin, Shirley Seames, Carol Stue, Martha Trapp, John Woodbury, Gene Shimamura, John Appl, Pauline Applin, Venessa Arsenau, Helen Berry, Ted Davis, Thelma Dombkowski, Sally Hannon, D. ald Hebert, Dan Hart, Rick M. Cam, Suzanne Taylor and Day Tripp.

A list like this always runs the risk of omitting a sponsor or overlooking the day-to-day sharing of teachers provide to students in the district, but such a list dispels a notion that teachers are unwilling to give of themselves. The level participation in volunteer activities by teachers in S.A.D. 44 care about the students in the district, at care about their profession.
